

With the nasty weather forecast, the emergency warming center at Fresh Start will be open for the next several nights.
http://www.weather.com/weather/tenday/83814?from=36hr\_topnav\_undeclared

Coeur d'Alene Emergency Overnight Warming Center @ Fresh Start 418 Coeur d'Alene Avenue (just North of The Iron Horse parking lot,
1/2 block East of The old Federal Building) downtown Coeur d'Alene telephone 208 667 9798

The warming center will open tonight Thursday March 5 at 9 pm and remain open until 12 Noon Friday March 6. We will remain open from 9 pm until 12 Noon for several nights until this bitter cold ends.

Available services include snacks, soup, coffee, telephone, Internet, rest rooms, shower & laundry.

Blankets & foam mats are available.

The Coeur d'Alene Emergency Warming Center is a joint venture between St. Vincent de Paul and Fresh Start, with additional support from St. Luke's Episcopal Church, First Presbyterian Church, St. Piux X Parish, Community Presbyterian Church, Friends Church, Lake City Community Church and many others.

For additional information, please contact Howard Martinson, Executive Director of Fresh Start at 208 661 1524 or at howard.martinson@gmail.com