

The flyer is a piece of crap...it won't work.

1) It's far too confusing (why put 2 URD scenarios in there). Most voters won't take the time to connect the dots...It will be round filed for the most part.

2) Thinking voters (the ones who actually vote in municipal elections) know that one councilman cannot make that change on his own. They will resent the FACT that he promises to pull it off.

3) In the off chance he wins, that flyer sets him up for failure in the next election because he makes a promise he cannot possibly pull off... Even if all three challengers win, they couldn't possibly pull this off... for many reasons ... including the ones MamaJD cites above...
