

WSU football player arrested on suspicion of assault

Posted on: Wednesday, December 02, 2009

Pullman

Pullman Police Department arrested Washington State University defensive back Brandon Jones, 22, on suspicion of assault at 3:01 p.m. Monday.

Police Cmdr. Chris Tennant said Jones' girlfriend called police after she allegedly was head-butted by Jones during a conflict Monday. Tennant said she was not treated for any injuries.

Tennant said Jones faces fourth-degree assault charges, the lowest level of assault.