ALLRED CAMPAIGN SHOWS CONTINUED SUPPORT

June 24, 2010 - Keith Allred, candidate for Idaho governor in 2010, is pleased to report that Idahoans are enthusiastically supporting his campaign.

The campaign raised $487,101 from its launch in late December 2009 to June 4, 2010. The vast majority, 93 percent, of the campaign's 2,130 contributors during that period are from Idaho.

"I'm glad to see that our campaign is enthusiastically supported by everyday Idahoans," said Allred. "I intend to make Idaho government work by, for and of the people, and our supporters are responding."

Today, the campaign reported to the Idaho Secretary of State's Office that in the period between May 10 through June 4, some 550 Idaho donors contributed to Allred's campaign.

The campaign raised $118,860 in that same period, and now has $189,994 cash on hand.

Keith Allred is a fifth-generation Idahoan who grew up working on his family's ranches. He has been the leader of The Common Interest, a citizens' advocate group that helped lower property taxes and fight proposals to raise car and pickup registration fees.
