

Is the person who approved this ad right for Idaho?

Minnick ad voiceover: “Over half of his work is helping illegal immigrants ‘stay in the United States’” Source: Idaho Statesman 5/16/2010

Reality: “My job as an immigration lawyer is to present to the judge a case and say, yes, he committed the crimes, and he's coming to ask forgiveness of the court. Will you allow him to stay in the United States?” Source: Dan Popkey, Idaho Statesman 5/16/2010

Minnick Ad voiceover: “Easy to understand” advice for illegal immigrants seeking amnesty

Reality: Screen of ad page during voiceover : “Your mind is made up, you have decided to come to the United States! On a short vacation as a tourist, visiting a relative, starting a new life, working in the USA, for political reasons, or maybe you have been accepted to a US university as a student. Whatever your goal may be, our links below will bring you to the easy to read pages on each USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) visa application process”

Minnick Ad voiceover: “What does Raul think of our broken immigration system?” Raul: “Now I like it because I make a good living out of it.”

Reality: March 26 meeting of the Treasure Valley Pachyderms: "Our system is broken and this is where I work with the system all the time. I'm trying to get people to go through the legal immigration system. They have to pay me thousands of dollars just to bring somebody to the United States. That's ridiculous. Now I like it because I make a good living because of it."

Phil Hardy
Communications Director
Labrador For Idaho
910 W. Jefferson
Boise, ID 83702