Governor Howard Dean is featured speaker at Idaho Democrats "Spring Training" luncheon

Governor Howard Dean will be the guest speaker at the Idaho Democrats "Spring Training" luncheon on April 16th, at the Coeur d'Alene Resort & Casino in Worley, Idaho.

Shelley Landry, Interim Executive Director of the Idaho Democratic Party remarked, "We are honored to have Governor Dean as our guest speaker. We couldn't have found a more dynamic person to come speak on innovative strategies and ways to significantly strengthen our party."

As chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Dean created and implemented the "50 State Strategy." Under his leadership Idaho benefited from significant resources that were dedicated to revitalizing the Party by building and strengthening the organizational tools, technological capabilities and infrastructure required to win.

Howard Dean was the creative mind behind Democracy for America. DFA is a grassroots powerhouse working to change our country and the Democratic Party from the bottom-up. DFA professionals will provide training throughout the weekend on campaign strategy and grassroots organizing.

"Our Spring Training weekend will give Idaho Democrats the opportunity to revitalize their local organizations. We are thrilled to be able to provide such a robust program that will give us new tools to recruit and support Democratic candidates around the state," said Shelley Landry, Interim Executive Director of the Idaho Democratic Party.
