Silverwood Opens for 2011 on Mother's Day Weekend, Moms get in Free

North of Coeur d'Alene, ID – It's time again, time for Silverwood to open its gate to all those happy fun seekers. And, as a park that has always been all about family fun what better weekend than Mother's Day weekend. This year when a family brings Mom to the park and purchases their tickets at the front gate she gets in free and her spouse and children get in for only $19.99 each this Saturday or Sunday, May 7th or 8th.

In 2011 Silverwood is bringing back your favorite massive roller coasters, tons of fun on all of Silverwood's family and children rides, plus a new Magic show and Train Ride show that will delight and entertain young and old alike. Also, don't forget the all NEW children rides Butterflyer and Frog Hopper.

Opening in 1988, Silverwood has grown from a local attraction into a fixture in the northwest tourism industry as the most attended attraction in the state of Idaho. Those who are interested in more information on the park can visit silverwoodthemepark.com to see all the amazing attractions Silverwood has to offer, days and hours of operation and other great deals and discounts coming throughout the month of May including details on bringing the whole family for a visit this coming weekend to celebrate Mother's Day.
