317 E Sherman Ave – Trespassing - #11C11503

Officers responded to a disturbance call in front of the Icon (see previous call #CD1445365). Upon arrival, officers found a group of approximately 20 people watching a fight on the sidewalk and bouncers restraining two males. One of the suspects, a 23 year old male, was restrained because he continued to fight while being escorted away from the bar. The bouncer did not want to press battery charges against the male; however, the male was trespassed from the bar for one year. Approximately 35 minutes later, a bouncer from the Icon ran to a patrol car driving down Sherman to report the male had returned to the Icon and was now at the entrance trying to start another fight. Officers attempted to speak with the male, told him several times to leave the area, and when the male would not comply, he was arrested for trespassing. The male was not compliant with officers after his arrest and would not get into the patrol vehicle until the officer kned him in the thigh and tazed him. Once the suspect was in the vehicle, he lay back on the seat and kicked an officer in the shoulder / chest area until another officer grabbed the suspect from the other side of the car and pulled him into the vehicle. The suspect was also charged with battery on a police officer.
