Friday, October 28, 2011: 0124 hours

216 E Coeur d’Alene Ave - #11C33978 – Fight

Officers responded to a fight call at the Rendezvous and upon arrival found the suspect, a 37 year old male, on the ground with a bouncer from the bar holding him down. Whenever the male was let up, he began swinging—trying to hit people and saying derogatory things about women. The male was bleeding from his nose, and when he spoke, he mumbled and slurred his words, threatening the officers (he was going to “kick our ass” & we did not know “who we were fucking with”). He smelled of alcohol, and his eyes were red and glassy. Officer retrieved a pocket knife from his pocket and deposited him in the back of the patrol car. A short while later, the suspect appeared to calm down and said he was sorry. Because the officer could not hear the suspect very well through the barrier in the patrol car, the officer opened the back door. At that time, the suspect became violent, swearing and kicking at the officer. A second officer arrived to assist in restraining the suspect; however, during this process, one officer was kicked in side of the face. The male was arrested for fighting in public, obstructing and spitting in a police vehicle.

Sunday, October 30, 2011: 0138 hours

101 E Sherman Ave - #11C34197 – Domestic Dispute

Officers were flagged down by a taxi driver who reported a male and female verbally arguing in the parking lot of the Bonsai Bistro. The officer responded to the location and spoke with the male who told him it was a verbal argument between the two because his wife is a bitch, and he cannot stand how rude she is. Both were given domestic violence pamphlets and separated to different locations for the evening.

Sunday, November 6, 2011: 0041 hours

407 E Sherman Ave - #11C34865 – Battery

Officers responded to a battery call at the Iron Horse involving a 48 year old male who was pushing the bouncers and other customers. When officers arrived there were numerous people in front of the bar, and the situation became tense and rapidly evolving as the suspect began to draw a crowd – putting himself and others in danger by running into the street and refusing to cooperate with police. Officers secured the suspect on the ground; however, he resisted being handcuffed requiring several officers to secure him. The male was intoxicated and slurred his words. According to witnesses, the male had been bothering customers in the bar, groping females and had been asked to leave. He was allowed to finish his beer before leaving; however, he then became obnoxious with the bar staff telling them to “go fuck themselves,” and when bouncers attempted to escort him from the premises, he swung a fist at a female customer. When questioned by officers, the suspect was evasive and not truthful. He was arrested on three counts of battery.

Sunday, November 6, 2011: 1257 hours

317 E Sherman Ave - #11C34897 – Battery

Officers responded to a battery call reference an incident that had occurred the previous evening (2200 hours) at the Icon. According to the victim, a 53 year old male from Spokane, he and his lady friend had been dancing at the Icon when an unknown male pushed him aside and began dancing with his date. The “victim” tried several times to get his lady back, but the male kept getting in between the two. Fearing for her safety, the “victim” punched the male in the face; however, the next morning he received medical attention for his hand (which was broken), and now he wanted to file a police report. A report was taken.

Sunday, November 20, 2011: 0055 hours

317 E Sherman Ave - #11C36322 – Resisting

Officers responded to a disorderly subject call at the Icon reference a male who had been fighting with the bouncers and unwilling to leave. At the same time, the bar caught two males who were attempting to steal beer from the downstairs cooler and as the officer was then trying to question the theft suspects, another male (26 years old)—who was very intoxicated and impaired kept putting his arm over the theft suspect’s shoulders and would not leave. When officers attempted to push the drunken man away (to continue the theft investigation), the male wouldn’t leave (he was pushed away and returned several times). Finally, the intoxicated male was arrested for obstructing. It is unclear what happened with the disorderly male or theft suspects.

Sunday, November 27, 2011: 0111 hours

200 E Sherman Ave - #11C36920 – Fight

Officers responded to a fight call at Splash and upon arrival, found three individuals on the floor of the Plaza Shops across from the bar – two of the males were security on top of the suspect, a 29 year old male. Apparently the male had punched another bar patron and while being escorted from the bar began to fight with security. The male was intoxicated and had been drinking at a bachelor party that evening. At first, he was uncooperative and reluctant to speak with officers, but then admitted to hitting someone and became apologetic and emotional. The male was cited for battery and escorted out of the bar.

Once conscious, the intoxicated male told officers his tires were flat because he hit a curb; however, quickly changed his story stating he was not driving. The male was heavily intoxicated – smelled of alcohol, bloodshot, glassy eyes, and spoke with a slur. He told officers that he had been drinking at the Rendezvous that evening and was getting a ride home with a girl (couldn't remember her name ) that must have ran off. This was the male's second DUI.
