

FREE FOI Training for Journalists
This Friday, Aug. 17, in Boise!

Brought to you by the Society for Professional Journalists' "Access Across America" project and the Idaho Press Club

9-10:30 a.m.

at

The Idaho Statesman
1200 N. Curtis Road

All journalists are welcome - don't miss it!

Presenter:

Ian Marquand

Former SPJ national Freedom of Information chair, and former chair of the Montana Freedom of Information Hotline

Covering:

- * Ideas for document-based stories, on deadline or projects
- * Strategies for effective records requests
- * Psychological skills for getting officials to give you what you need without going to court
- * Rousing inspiration for doing great journalism in tough times

Participants receive handouts on story ideas & records resources

Access Across America is a national FOI training tour for journalists begun in May 2010, sponsored by the Sigma Delta Chi Foundation and the National Freedom of Information Coalition to spread training in acquiring public records

RSVP to email@idahopressclub.org