

It's liberals versus conservatives, Democrats versus Republicans, BLUE versus RED in this year's high stakes Rock Em' Sock Em' robots-style election. Who will get knocked off his block? Will it be the incumbent, Barack Obama, or the former Massachusetts' governor, Mitt Romney?

Only time will tell, but until then, "Political Power: Romney Obama 2012" offers an extensive look at the backgrounds of both candidates. New York Times' best-selling author, Marc Shapiro's eloquent story telling guides the reader through the lives of Obama and Romney in this commemorate edition comic book. Co-written by Chris Ward with art by Jed Mickle, Azim and Nathan Girten

"Barack Obama and Mitt Romney have been taking jabs at each other for the better part of the year, so far. The intensity will only increase the closer we get to Election Day, as the stakes have never been higher," said Bluewater President Darren G. Davis. "We wanted to have some fun with the figurative boxing match that has been going on between the two candidates and, at the same time, educate readers on the two men fighting for the presidency."

Bluewater Productions burst onto the political scene four years ago with the introduction of their highly acclaimed biography series "Political Power."
