

Natural Right of Contracts Resolution

WHEREAS, there exists no natural right to make a contract with an unwilling private person, no matter what that person's motivation for refusing that contract; and,

WHEREAS, the right to make contracts is therefore always a right to enter into binding agreements such as employment or rental contracts only with willing second parties; and,

WHEREAS, a municipal anti-discrimination ordinance confers the right to make contracts with unwilling parties and to "enforce" those contracts in court; therefore,

RESOLVED, the Kootenai County Republican Central Committee considers the City of Coeur d'Alene's recently adopted anti-discrimination ordinance to be a violation of the people's natural right to make free contracts, and

RESOLVED, the Kootenai County Republican Central Committee recommends that the Coeur d'Alene City Council secure the natural freedoms of its citizens by repealing said ordinance.
