

JIM HAIL ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR POST FALLS CITY COUNCIL, SEAT #2

POST FALLS, ID, September 5, 2014 – With the support of his family and friends, Jim Hail formally announced today his candidacy for Post Falls City Council, Seat #2.

In his announcement, Hail described his campaign for office and his vision for the future of the city of Post Falls.

“Being a lifelong resident of the area, I am passionate about the city of Post Falls and its people,” said Hail. “I hope to keep Post Falls a family-friendly community where I can raise children and maintain the qualities that make the city a place people are proud of.”

Bringing over a decade of business experience to the table, Hail went on to say, “I believe that my life experiences, professional expertise, abilities, and understanding of the issues uniquely position me as the best candidate for Post Falls City Council.”

Hail further stated, “Beyond my experience, I believe I have the temperament and attributes necessary for the important position of Post Falls City Council member.

Hail will campaign over the next two months by reaching out to Post Falls residents who are searching for a strong, hard-working, and conscientious candidate who will bring a fresh perspective to the city council.

Jim Hail is the Accounts Receivable Manager at Hagadone Directories, Inc. as well as a business owner & property investor in Post Falls. A University of Idaho graduate, he has lived in Kootenai County for all of his life. Hail has served on the City of Post Falls Parks & Recreation Commission since January of 2008 and has been Chairman of the commission for the past three years. In addition to serving as President of his home owner’s association board for the past three years, Hail is also a former “Big Brother” for Big Brothers Big Sisters of North Idaho as well as a former member of the TESH Resource Development Committee.
