March 11, 2014 School District Election

Kootenai County Clerk Jim Brannon announced that levy elections for two school districts will be held on March 11, 2014. “Lakeland Joint District 272 and Kellogg Joint District 391 will each have supplemental maintenance and operations levy questions on the ballot,” said Brannon. “Only voters residing in those school districts will be eligible to vote in this election,” he continued.

Voters have many options for casting their ballots. Early voting will be available at the County Elections Office, 1808 N. Third Street in Coeur d’Alene, between February 24 and March 7. The office is open from 8AM to 5PM Monday – Friday.

Eligible voters may request an absentee ballot no later than March 5 via this form: <http://www.kcgov.us/elections/AbsenteeBallotApplication.pdf>. The completed request can be delivered to the Elections office, mailed, faxed to 446-2184 or emailed to kcelections@kcgov.us. Postage on returned ballots will be paid by Kootenai County.

On Election Day, polls will be open 8AM to 8PM. Not all polling places will be used in the March 11 election; voters can confirm polling place locations here <http://www.kcgov.us/elections/search>.
