GOVERNOR OTTER ANNOUNCES CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATION

(BOISE) – Governor C.L. "Butch" Otter today announced the statewide organization in his campaign for re-election, including Secretary of State Ben Ysursa and the leaders of both the Idaho House of Representatives and Idaho Senate.

"I am proud to have the support of such a solid group of conservative leaders from throughout Idaho," Governor Otter said. "Their confidence in my ability to lead Idaho is a strong sign that we're moving the campaign and our great state in the right direction."

Positions announced today include:

Campaign Co-Chairs

- Freda Cenarrusa
- Secretary of State Ben Ysursa

Legislative Leadership Co-Chairs

- House Speaker Scott Bedke
- House Majority Leader Mike Moyle
- Senate President Pro Tem Brent Hill
- Senate Majority Leader Bart Davis
- Senate Assistant Majority Leader Chuck Winder

Regional Campaign Co-Chairs

- Region 1 – Todd Brinkmeyer, Julie Chadderdon, Darrell Kerby, Sandy Patano, Jack Riggs
- Region 2 – Brett Bennett, Frank Dammarell
- Region 3 – Nancy Baxter, Sandra Mitchell, Skip Smyser
- Region 4 – Debbie Field, Jeff Malmen, Cheryl Miller, Eva Gay Yost
- Region 5 – Bob Naerebout, Marty Orwig, Con Paulos
- Region 6 – Trent Clark, Craig Parrish, Mark Harris
- Region 7 – Marsha Bjornn, Richard Larsen, Cortney Liddiard, Damond Watkins

The campaign co-chairs, legislative leadership co-chairs and regional co-chairs, along with numerous volunteers throughout Idaho, are committed to driving grassroots support for the Governor's re-election.

"The Governor has not only been a friend to Penny and me for many years, but a great friend to Idaho as well," said Secretary of State Ben Ysursa. "In so many areas Idaho is a model for the nation as a result of the business principles the Governor has brought to our state government."

"I have great respect for the Governor and the strong leadership he has demonstrated for our state during some of the most challenging times in recent history," said Senate President Pro-Tem Brent Hill. "He holds firm to his values, is a man of integrity, and responsibly advances the conservative principles that so many Idahoans hold dear."

"Over the past seven years, no one has worked harder for this state and its citizens," said House Speaker Scott Bedke. "From growing our state's economy to protecting Idaho's natural resources, Governor Otter has made the tough decisions needed to propel our state forward."
