May 12, 2014

Today I, Jim Brannon am officially announcing my intent to retain the office of Kootenai County Clerk and stand for election in the May 20, 2014 Republican Primary. It has been my pleasure to serve the citizens of our great county.

My predecessor in the office of County Clerk, Cliff Hayes developed, trained and built a solid team of dedicated public servants who are efficient and productive in their jobs. The Kootenai County Clerk's office is a model for attention to detail and getting the job done right the first time. This saves you, the taxpayer money. I commit that this fine team of professionals will continue to look for process improvements and respond to your requests promptly. We work for you. The culture of good enough does not exist in our office; we strive for excellence and are accountable to you.

While, everyone in our office takes pride in how much we have achieved, our progress will not stop. We are energized and focused on better serving your needs and you are the main reason for our future progress.

I have the stamina and experience to perform the complex job of clerk. I am a creative thinker and possess a great resolve to see projects through to completion. I pledge to you that I will continue to serve you with the highest ethical principals. I am humbly seeking your support and your vote of confidence to continue serving as your County Clerk.

I ask you to please judge our commitment to service based on your own experience with our office. With your help and support, the Kootenai County Clerk's office will continue to be driven by service, innovation and diligence.

Sincerely,

Jim Brannon
