

IDAHO LOGGERS PAC ENDORSES MCGRANE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

“As Idaho Loggers and Haulers, we know that Phil understands the importance of active management of the State’s forest lands to make sure those lands remain productive and healthy, earn money for the public schools while providing high-quality jobs for hardworking Idahoans,” said Rich Nordstrom, PAC Chairman.

(Boise, ID) Today the Idaho Loggers PAC endorsed Phil McGrane and his campaign to be Idaho's next Republican Secretary of State. Along with their endorsement, the Idaho Loggers PAC presented McGrane a generous donation to his campaign. The Idaho Loggers PAC is representative of hundreds of logging and hauling businesses across the State.

"After looking at the candidates in the field, the Idaho Loggers PAC has chosen to support Phil McGrane as Idaho's next Secretary of State because of his commitment and knowledge of issues that are important to us. As Idaho Loggers and Haulers, we know that Phil understands the importance of active management of the State’s forest lands to make sure those lands remain productive and healthy, earn money for the public schools while providing high-quality jobs for hardworking Idahoans," said Rich Nordstrom, PAC Chairman. "Phil's philosophy on land board issues gives us assurance that Idaho's interests will be well served with him in office."

"I want to thank the Idaho Loggers and Haulers for their support of the campaign become the next Republican Secretary of State," said McGrane. "I take the duties of the Idaho Land Board very seriously. If elected, the decisions I make on the Land Board will be fair, efficient, and service oriented in order to maximize value for endowment land beneficiaries, all Idahoans."
