

Joker offers this spoof of a fictitious new show (4.24.14):

Here is an excerpt from the script of of my latest idea: a new crime show set in Coeur d'Alene – Law& Order: Whack-a-doodle unit.

Mary Jo: Help me quick. The Coeur d'Alene School District is breaking the open meeting law! They're doing things in secret.

Det. Briscoe: I gave up New York for this?

Capt. Christie Wood: Come on buddy, this is a serious case. Mary Jo, what are you talking about?

Mary: The district wants to add the words.

(Sound of DUM DUM)

Briscoe: I have a few words, but continue.

Mary Jo: They're trying to add the words about, whispers, gay people to the district policies.

(Sound DUM DUM)

Briscoe: How do you know this?

Mary Joe: There was an email and apology. Then there was a trip to Boise. Here's the picture. You know it's part of the Gay and Lesbian agenda.

Briscoe: Wait, what's the "gay agenda?"

Mary Jo: They want to turn everybody gay. It will be the end of humanity.

(Sound of DUM DUM).

Wood: Ok, we'll take your claims and this evidence to the prosecuting attorney.

(Sound of DUM DUM)

Barry McHugh: Well, this opening meeting violation case is really bad. One of the worst examples I've seen I think we can convict.

Assistant DA: There's only a small fine. Isn't there a better use of our resources? Can't we give them a warning?

McHugh: You don't know the political pressure I am under.
The local GOP will have my head on a platter unless I take this very seriously. Issue a warrant for the entire school board. They're going down.
