

RESOLUTION: FINANCIAL TRANSPARENCY

Whereas, there has been much discussion concerning the financial transparency of the Kootenai County Republican Central Committee; and,

Whereas, financial transparency is a hallmark of effective leadership; therefore,

MAIN MOTION

Resolved, the KCRCC calls upon Chairman Neil Oliver to appoint a Financial Review Committee for the purpose of an audit for the last ten years at no cost to the KCRCC; and,

Resolved, the KCRCC authorizes Chairman Neil Oliver to appoint KCRCC members and two volunteer Idaho Certified Public Accountants, as voted on by the KCRCC body, from outside of the Central Committee to join this committee; and,

Resolved, that all members involved on the Financial Review Committee will sign a non-disclosure agreement, are prohibited from divulging information outside of the committee, and will give a final report to the KCRCC; and,

Resolved, the KCRCC demands that the investigation and reporting of this committee begin as soon as possible and that the final report shall be completed in a timely manner; and,

Resolved, should the KCRCC pass this resolution, the KCRCC will immediately proceed by selecting the two CPAs required by this resolution.
