FORMER LT. GOVERNOR JACK RIGGS AND STATE CONTROLLER KEITH JOHNSON ADD KEY SUPPORT FOR MCGRANE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

"Having had firsthand experience understanding the importance of this position, the clear choice is Phil McGrane," say Jack Riggs and Keith Johnson.

(Coeur d'Alene & Boise, ID) Today two former statewide elected leaders joined the prominent list of Republicans to publicly back Phil McGrane for Secretary of State, as former Lt. Governor Jack Riggs and former State Controller Keith Johnson threw their support to McGrane's candidacy.

"During our time in office, serving together and serving with Ben Ysursa, we learned the importance the office of Secretary of State has in so many factors of Idaho's success," said former Lt. Governor Jack Riggs and former State Controller Keith Johnson.

"Having had firsthand experience understanding the importance of this position and the skills needed to successfully occupy it, for us the clear choice is Phil McGrane," Riggs and Johnson concluded.

"I continue to be humbled by the support I receive by the men and women who have served our great state in high office," said Phil McGrane. "Gaining the support of Jack Riggs, a man of considerable success both in the private and public sectors as well as Keith Johnson, someone who served not one but two states in high office fills me with pride and with the determination to successfully follow in their footsteps. I thank them and everyone who has supported me in my campaign so far.
