On May 17th at 6:00pm Coeur d'Alene Police Officers took a report of suspected child enticing. The reporting party explained a male has been hanging around the area of her residence and she thinks he may be enticing her son. She lives in the 1900 block of W. Fairway Dr.

The witness said she recently noticed a white van parked in the vicinity of her home. The suspicious male drives the white van. She does not know who the male is and has not seen him in the area before. She said on May 12th at approximately noon she observed the male walking on her property. Her three year old son was playing outside at the time. The witness said the male asked her son to come to his van and help him with his dog. She noticed him engaged in conversation with her son and confronted him. She said the male started to walk back towards his car. He told her he needed a jump start. The witness told him that he should leave her property. The suspect male left the property and left the area.

On May 17th at approximately 5:30pm the witness noticed the white van with the same male driver parked near her property again. This time her 7 year-old and 5 year-old sons were also outside with her three year-old son. She stated that she walked to the van and spoke to the male. She confronted the male on his actions and why he was in the area. The male told her that he comes to this area to "tie" his dogs. She warned him that she was going to call the police. The male replied that he just got out of jail and he did not want her to call. The male immediately left the area.

Officers have followed up on the license plate of this vehicle. The registered owner is not in possession of the vehicle at this time. Further follow-up with the owner is on-going. If anyone has any information on the identity of this suspect, or information about this crime they are asked to call Coeur d'Alene Police Department at 769-2320.
