Call for Rules Clarity Resolution

Whereas, A lack of a clearly codified process governing the election of State Party Convention Delegates has led to a variety of outcomes at County Party Reorganization meetings; and,

Whereas, A lack of a clearly codified process governing the election of Party nominated candidates for vacant county government and state legislative positions has led to confusion regarding the proper process; and,

Whereas, A lack of clearly codified procedures regarding the consequences of adjourning a State Convention before State Party business is complete has resulted in confusion regarding the future of our party; therefore

Resolved, That the Kootenai County Republican Central Committee (KCRCC) requests that the Idaho State Republican Executive Committee appoint a special rules subcommittee to address these shortcomings in the State Party Rules; and,

Resolved, That the KCRCC Secretary shall forward this Resolution to the Chairman of the Idaho Republican Party and the Chairman of the Idaho Republican Party Standing Rules Committee.
