

NIC to hold workshops showcasing career tools

A variety of resources, information, and tools available to explore careers will be showcased at a one-hour workshop at North Idaho College's Molstead Library Todd Hall at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct.

The public is invited to learn how to find, evaluate, use, and easily access information that will help in the exploration of new careers, discovering the benefits of a job or occupation, or learning how to get started on a future career path. Following each workshop, knowledgeable staff will be available to assist in finding accurate and reputable information needed to make good career choices.

The workshops are a collaboration of NIC's Molstead Library and Career Services and are free and open to the public. More information is available at www.nic.edu/career.
