

Dear KCRCC,

I am asking you to please take a moment and hear my call to action at this crucial point in our Kootenai County 2014 election cycle. There are Republican candidates in need of our support to help push their campaigns over that final hurdle. Please review the requests below and help these candidates.

David Stewart, candidate for Kootenai County Commissioner, is looking for a few more donations to cover additional printing and mailing costs. He is a great candidate who will be a fantastic Kootenai County Commissioner.

Donations can be made online at www.stewart4idaho.com (processed through PayPal) or can be mailed to:

Coeur d'Alene, ID 83816

Jim Brannon, Kootenai County Clerk and candidate for the same office, requests your donations to help complete the funding of his campaign. Jim is a very principled and honorable candidate that we as Republicans can stand behind with confidence. Please give your generous contributions by using either of these two methods:

By Mail:
Jim Brannon
P.O. Box 2831
Coeur d'Alene, Idaho 83816

Kathy Sims, Representative for District 4 and candidate for the same office, is seeking members of the Republican grassroots to help out with walking precincts in District 4 as well as identifying locations for yard signs. Kathy has been dedicated to the Republican cause in Kootenai County for years.

Now is the time that we all need to stand with Kathy and give a helping hand to her campaign so that all of her efforts can be fully realized during this election cycle. Please visit her website to volunteer:

Steve Matheson, candidate for Kootenai County Treasurer, is asking for Republicans to write letters to the editor supporting his candidacy. Steve has personally shown he is the right candidate for this position and is highly qualified as well. Please use your gift of writing for Steve so he can use his considerable knowledge, abilities and talents for us as the Kootenai County Treasurer.

The other candidate races are all well-funded due to generous campaign contributions from good Republicans like yourself.

Sincerely,
Neil Oliver
Chairman, Kootenai County Republican Party
