

Post Falls Police Department activities report – 11.23-24.14

Swing/Graveyard Shifts (Sunday/Monday):

Swing and Graveyard shifts were very quiet with minimal calls for service. Officers responded to 27 calls including 4 medical assists, 3 citizen assists, 2 welfare checks and 2 suspicious incidents.

Day Shift (Sunday):

14PF23230: Auto Burglary

RP called to report an auto burg report, advised his 2005 Chevy Silverado was broken into and his wallet containing approx. $200.00 cash, credit cards, identification and concealed weapons permit was stolen along with a pair of Oakley sunglasses. There are no suspects at this time and report was taken.

14PF23237: Auto Burglary

RP called to report an auto burg report that occurred. The RP stated her two vehicles were broken into and Oakley sunglasses were taken from both vehicles. There are no suspects at this time and report was taken.

Graveyard Shift briefing (Sunday):

Shoplifter, Super 1

A man entered Super 1 and stole chicken from the cooler. He was confronted leaving the store by an employee, but refused to pay for the merchandise and left. Officers were called after the suspect left the area.

14PF23223-Burglary, E 2nd Ave

The Police Department received a report that a male entered into an apartment his mother and other people live in while they were gone and stole a television, power tools, and a bicycle. The property was recovered by the owners, though the mother wished to pursue charges of burglary.

Warrant Arrest, E 2nd Ave

While officers were investigating the prior burglary call it was found that one of the witnesses had two active warrants for their arrest; the male was arrest and booked at PSB.

Citizen Assist, Denny's

RP (reporting party) called requesting a police officer because he felt he was being "ripped off". Officers arrived and met with the intoxicated RP, who said the staff at Denny's had a grudge against him and were disrespectful. The RP was told that "poor service" was not illegal and it was recommended he contact the management of Denny's to file a complaint.

Swing Shift (Sunday)

Overall it was a fairly quiet swing shift with the following reports taken:

Hit and Run accident at Loves truck stop, RP witness a red semi strike another park semi and leave the scene. RP gave description of the truck and stated it was headed Eastbound on I-90. ISP was able to stop the truck at the port, driver of the truck stated he knew he hit the other truck, but he could find the driver so he left. Driver of the suspect semi was cited for leaving the scene. The victim driver was not located on this time, a card was left in his door to contact the pd.

Residential Burglary, victim came home to find her front door kicked in and several pieces of jewelry missing, totaling close to $10,000. Victim had no suspects at this time, her roommate left at approx 1430 hrs and the victim came home around 1850 hrs.

Shoplifter at Super 1, female was detained for unpaid merchandise in her purse. She was cited and released for petit theft.

Overall it was a fairly quiet swing shift with the following reports taken:

Hit and Run accident at Loves truck stop, RP witness a red semi strike another park semi and leave the scene. RP gave description of the truck and stated it was headed Eastbound on I-90. ISP was able to stop the truck at the port, driver of the truck stated he knew he hit the other truck, but he could find the driver so he left. Driver of the suspect semi was cited for leaving the scene. The victim driver was not located on this time, a card was left in his door to contact the pd.

Residential Burglary, victim came home to find her front door kicked in and several pieces of jewelry missing, totaling close to $10,000. Victim had no suspects at this time, her roommate left at approx 1430 hrs and the victim came home around 1850 hrs.

Shoplifter at Super 1, female was detained for unpaid merchandise in her purse. She was cited and released for petit theft.