Day Shift Log:

A local daycare reported finding an adult size jacket in their playground area this morning. The reporting party advised the jacket was not there last night when they closed at 5:30 PM. They also reported that it appears someone slept under the tarp used to cover the sand box. Extra patrol was arranged.

A structure fire was reported on the 1500 block of E 1st when the resident returned home to find that her windows appeared to be black and noticed smoke rolling out of the eaves of the residence. No one was injured and the fire was extinguished. It was determined the fire was caused by the wood stove.

A local grocery store requested officers respond and contact a male who has been hanging out at the business and sleeping in the entry ways, on shopping carts and the cart mule. The male was also cursing at employees and patrons. Officers contacted the male and issued a trespass warning at the request of the business. The male was then given a ride to the Flying J Travel Plaza
