Defendants.)

BEFORE THE COURT is Plaintiff Corporation of Gonzaga University's ("Gonzaga") Motion For Entry of a Permanent Injunction Order, ECF No. 34, filed on October 22, 2014 and argued on December 10, 2014 in Yakima, Washington.

Plaintiff Gonzaga filed its Motion for Summary Judgment on July 16, 2014. After briefing, oral argument was held on

1 September 4, 2014. On September 25, 2014, the Court entered
2 its Order on Gonzaga's Motion for [Partial] Summary Judgment
3 (ECF No. 33), granting Gonzaga's motion which the Court hereby
4 incorporates by this reference into this Permanent Injunction.
5 In its order granting summary judgment, the Court
6 found that Defendants' conduct violated §43(a) [15 U.S.C.
7 §1125(a)] of the Lanham Act through the Defendants' use of
8 Gonzaga's Identifiers and Trademarks.
9

11 The Court finds that Plaintiff Gonzaga is the owner of the 12 Gonzaga Identifiers and Trademarks as defined below, which 13 have achieved secondary meaning through their use in the 14 Spokane, Washington area. In the Spokane area, Gonzaga's
15 Identifiers and Trademarks are commercially strong and there
16 is no dispute that each of the Gonzaga Identifiers and
17 Trademarks refer to or identify Gonzaga in the Spokane area.
18

20 The Defendants commercial use of the Gonzaga Identifiers
21 and Trademarks have the potential to cause confusion in the 22 minds of consumers about the origin of the goods or services
23 in question or a sponsorship, approval or affiliation by 24 Gonzaga that doesn't exist. The Court concludes that use of 25 the Gonzaga Identifiers and Trademarks creates a likelihood of 26

1 confusion between Defendants' goods and services and Gonzaga.

2 The Lanham Act gives the Court "power to grant injunctions
3 according to the rules of equity and upon such terms as the
4 court may deem reasonable, to prevent the violation" of a mark
5 holder's rights. 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a); Pepsico, Inc., et al. v.
6 Cal. Sec. Cans, 238 F.Supp.2d 1172, 1177-78 (2002).

7
8 A permanent injunction may be entered where the plaintiff
9 shows: (1) that it has suffered an irreparable injury; (2)
10 that remedies available at law, such as monetary damages, are 11 inadequate to compensate for that injury; (3) that,
12 considering the balance of the hardships between the plaintiff
13 and defendant, a remedy in equity is warranted; and (4) that
14 the public interest would not be disserved by a permanent
15 injunction.

16
17 While "[t]he decision to grant or deny permanent
18 injunctive relief is an act of equitable discretion by the 19 district court," the "traditional principles of equity" demand 20 a fair weighing of the factors listed above, taking into 21 account the unique circumstances of each case. Ebay, Inc. v.
22 Mercexchange, L.L.C., 547 U.S. 388, 395 (2006).

23
24
25 In considering injunctive relief, the Court finds that
26

1 Gonzaga has suffered irreparable injury to its goodwill
2 and will suffer further irreparable injury if
3 Defendants' conduct which this Court has found to violate
4 §43(a) [15 U.S.C. §1125(a)] of the Lanham Act is allowed to 5 continue. This irreparable injury includes, without
6 limitation: 1) Gonzaga is unable to control use of the 7 Gonzaga Identifiers and Trademarks; 2) Gonzaga is unable 8 to control or approve the nature of the business or
9 commercial enterprise that is being promoted with Gonzaga
10 Identifiers and Trademarks; 3) Gonzaga is unable to control
11 the type of event or services promoted in connection with the 12 use of the Gonzaga Identifiers and Trademarks; 4) Gonzaga is 13 unable to prescribe and control the conduct of the Gonzaga
14 mascot wearing a Gonzaga identifying jersey; and 5) Gonzaga,
15 a Jesuit Catholic University, cannot control the negative
16 public perception and impact resulting from confusion that it
17 is affiliated, connected, or associated with Defendants'
18 businesses.
19
20
21
22

23 In considering injunctive relief, the Court further finds
24 that the full scope of the past and future harm to Gonzaga's
25 reputation is and would be difficult to quantify and difficult
26

1 to convert to monetary damages. Therefore, monetary damages
2 would be inadequate to compensate for injury that would
3 result from Defendants' continued use of Gonzaga's Identifiers
4 and Trademarks.
5

6 The Court further finds that the balance of hardships of 7 the entry of a permanent injunction favors Gonzaga, as the 8 Court notes that Defendants are not presently conducting
9 businesses in the bar and radio enterprises but have not
10 abandoned plans to do so in the future. Finally, the Court
11 finds that the public interest is served by the removal
12 of the creation of a likelihood of confusion that Defendants
13 are affiliated, connected or associated with Gonzaga, or that
14 there was a sponsorship or approval by Gonzaga of Defendants'
15 goods, services, or commercial activities, when there is no
16 such connection, association or affiliation.
17
18
19

20 Good cause exists to enter a permanent injunction. Based
21 upon the facts, evidence and the Court's Order on Gonzaga's
22 Motion For [Partial] Summary Judgment (ECF No. 33) finding
23 that Defendants' conduct violated §43(a) [15 U.S.C. §1125(a)]
24 of the Lanham Act through Defendants' use of Gonzaga's
25 Identifiers and Trademarks, Plaintiff Gonzaga's Motion for

2 GRANTED. Accordingly,
