FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PAUL AMADOR ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR IDAHO HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES SEAT 4B

(Coeur d'Alene, Idaho – March 1, 2016) – Paul Amador (R) will formally announce his candidacy for House Seat 4B, at 2:00 pm on Thursday, March 3, at The Art Spirit Gallery in downtown Coeur d'Alene.

Running a campaign based on the pillars of education, economy, and healthcare, Paul believes he can make a difference in his community and his state – working for the people that he will represent. “I come from a family that recognizes honest American values, where parents, aunts, uncles, and grandparents teach you about honesty and humility, where we learn by doing and trying, and where hard work is expected and rewarded.” Paul wants all voices to be heard!

Paul is excited to kick off his campaign and looks forward to meeting with the public at town hall meetings and debates, as well as connecting with his supporters and sharing his ideas for a better future for Idaho. Paul encourages people to visit his website at www.AmadorForIdaho.com and get involved in making Idaho better and stronger for all who share in this amazing place.

Join Paul and his campaign team on Thursday, March 3, at 2:00 pm, at The Art Spirit Gallery, as he formally announces his candidacy and begins working to earn a seat in the Idaho Legislature, where he knows he can make Idaho work again.
