

Coeur d'Alene traffic stop leads to multiple charges against 3 Montanans

ISP news release

On June 28th at 3:53 PM, the Idaho State Police located a vehicle travelling westbound on I90 just east of the Coeur d'Alene city limits that was reported stolen out of Montana. Troopers stopped the vehicle at the Mobil Gas Station on Sherman Ave. With the assistance of the Kootenai County Sheriff's Office and the Coeur d'Alene Police Department all three occupants of the vehicle were arrested without incident.

-Ryan S. Drollinger 40 years of age from Kalispell, MT. Charges: possession of a stolen vehicle, trafficking methamphetamine, possession of heroin, and possession of paraphernalia.

-Timothy J. Cheney 31 years of age from Columbia Falls, MT. Charges: trafficking methamphetamine, possession of heroin, and possession of paraphernalia

-Sarah S. Reed 33 years of age from Kalispell, MT. Charges: trafficking methamphetamine, possession of heroin, and possession of paraphernalia. Sara was also charged as a fugitive from justice for an outstanding felony warrant out of Montana.