

ThomG's e-mail to Coeur d'Alene schools Superintendent Hazel Bauman

I was extremely disappointed to read that SD 271 has decided to forgo an opportunity for the children of this district to hear an inspirational message from the President of the United States. Yielding to the loudest critics, however irrational, will... teach our children to avoid standing up for what is right, in favor of meekly yielding to the loudest mouths that drown at rational voices.