As I mentioned to you on the phone, we were pleasantly surprised to see that Mike Jorgenson and his wife were endorsing Jim's candidacy. We had heard rumors that some people were wanting to do something to support Jim, but we did not know who it might be, or what they wanted to do.

As near as I know, nobody involved in Jim's campaign had ever talked to Mike or his wife, certainly I have never talked to him, so it came as a complete surprise to us.

As to how they may have found Jim's picture and contact information, I can only surmise they got it from Jim's web site or one of his flyers.

In summary, I would guess you should contact Mike for these answers since I can't be of any help other than this.

Sincerely,

Randy K. Bates
 Treasurer of the Committee to elect Jim Brannon

Subject: Campaign Financial Disclosure Violation

Jim and Randy, The CdA Press circulated a flyer in this weekend's newspaper that appears to have violated the Sunshine Law (Campaign Financial Disclosure Report). There are a few issues with this flyer. 1: If it was distributed with your cooperation, then you have failed to submit the 48 hours notice of contributions and the law has been violated (the cost of the flyer was $1,090.80). 2: If it was distributed without your knowledge (which I would question since you and your wife's photo and contact information is on the flyer), then CDA Consulting has violated the Sunshine Law in that they have not filed a 48-hour notice of expenditures of $1,000 or more and/or appointment of Campaign Treasurer for a Committee promoting the election of a candidate prior to the expenditure of any funds.

Please contact me as soon as possible. I have left a voice message with Mike Jorgensen who identified himself as CDA consulting. Please note that this is the second time I have received information of your campaign being in violation of the Sunshine Laws and would advise immediate attention to this matter.
