Coeur d'Alene Police has received theft reports that occurred at four of our local gyms. The suspect(s) are walking into area gyms and helping themselves to keys, and wallets in the men's locker rooms. In turn they use the keys to get into the victims vehicle in the parking lot. A chart below details the most recent cases. Attached to this press release is surveillance camera footage of the suspect entering 360 Fitness. No other video surveillance footage is available. One of the credit cards that were stolen on April 16th was used at the Safeway store in Liberty Lake. Attached to this press release are photos of two males believed to be connected to the use of the stolen credit card. The photos are taken from surveillance video at Safeway. If anyone has information on the identity of the males, or the dark colored compact car utilized by the suspect in the video, and the driver accomplice contact the Coeur d'Alene Police Department at 769-2320.
