Re: Rodgers vs. EWSHS d/b/a Christine Schnug, et. al.

Dear Ms. McGuire:

This is in response to your June 7, 2012 letter. If it was your clients' intent to be insulting in its proposal to Mr. Rodgers, then it was successful. Your clients' offer to resolve this dispute on such a ludicrous basis is rejected.

Instead, attached find a Complaint we have prepared on behalf of Mr. Rodgers which we have been authorized to final and file on Thursday, June 21, 2012 at 12:30 p.m. if Mr. Rodgers' unlawful termination remains unresolved.

It appears that the handful of misguided Executive Board members who orchestrated the wrongful conduct at issue have instructed you to pursue a course that leaves Mr. Rodgers no alternative but to sue the MAC and them personally. So be it. It was never his desire to be placed in this position.

If, however, on the other hand, there is any interest whatsoever in avoiding litigation, Mr. Rodgers reiterates his prior offer: reinstatement with certain conditions or, alternatively, payment of a severance amount of $750,000.00.

Your client has until next Thursday to determine how it wishes to proceed. If we do not timely hear from you, we will act accordingly.

Very truly yours,
