As you can see, I'm pretty smart. I'm also 100% sane, 0% crazy.

Why did he do it?

My life was ruined. Ruined by an intelligent species of amphibian-humanoid from Mars. I wish I was joking, keep reading.

- They were here long before we ever existed.
- Their technology is millions of years more advanced than ours. I've seen them do things that defy all comprehension.
- They have a massive breeding stock of humans, which they breed and control from birth. They use these 'humans' to live vicarious lives among us. They appear to be completely normal because they're good at imitating human behavior. (See Martian Technology for an explanation on this)
- The actual Martians live deep underground here and inside of the moon.
- They take control of 'wild' human beings and use them as sex slaves. Don't believe me? Ask President Obama to take a lie detector test on this one.
- They tried to take me, but they were unable to control my mind. They've been following me ever since.
- I tried everything to get my life back. I begged, bargained, and I threatened.
- Everything I tried to do was sabotaged.
- I attempted suicide twice, but they stopped me both times.
- My last resort was to take actions that would bring this to the public's attention.

My Story

SPRING 2014 - Moscow, ID

Everything started while I was at University of Idaho. Spring 2014 was my final semester and I was taking a heavy course load (see Transcript). I was very stressed due to the intensity of my schedule, so I searched for a way to cope. I discovered meditation, which seemed to help, so it became part of my daily routine. As I learned more about meditation, I became interested in consciousness and our ability to affect it. I kept working on my meditation techniques and began achieving extreme states of consciousness.

This continued until I encountered another being through meditation. It happened one night in February 2014 and it was the most profound experience I've ever had. I was lying in bed meditating then suddenly left my physical body. I entered a space that was completely dark and had no awareness of my physical boundaries/orientation. I felt very peaceful there until a blue light began to approach me. As the blue light got closer, I realized it was another being. Once I was in the being's presence, I felt an immediate sense of wrongdoing. It felt like I was being told "YOU SHOULDN'T BE HERE!" I instantly conceded and felt guilty, then I began to distance myself from the being. This had an impact on them and seemed to change their mind about me. The moment I began to distance myself from the being, I became overwhelmed by a feeling I can only describe as unconditional love. During this part of the experience, our minds became connected and I saw that the being was female. I then began to feel the most euphoric, comforting, and blissful feelings I have ever felt. It was incredibly powerful and life-altering.

Next thing I knew, I woke up. I had tears in my eyes and I couldn't get out of bed. I felt a profound sense of loss like I had just lost someone close to me. It was very painful. A few minutes later, the experience left my mind (against my will) and I went about my day. After that, I had no urge to meditate at all. Every time I even thought about meditation, the thought was stripped from my mind. When I finally did try meditating again, I was unable to achieve anything. I didn't think much of it at the time, but I knew it wasn't going to improve. Ultimately, I decided to give up on meditation and just focus on my classes.

The remainder of the semester became exceedingly easy for me. It felt like I had tapped into some kind of power. I was exerting no mental effort even though the classes had been extremely difficult before. I also began to have complex thoughts and a depth of understanding I had never reached before.

About a month later, I started interviewing at the graduate schools I had applied to. Shortly after the interviews were done, I started receiving offers. I decided to accept the offer from Baylor College of Medicine to work on a PhD in Human Genetics. I was very excited about the opportunity to work at such a prestigious university. The future looked bright and I couldn't wait to get started.

JUL 2014 - OCT 2014 - Houston, TX

Everything changed once I started the program. The moment I arrived, I could see flaws in every professor's research. My mind was so expanded that I could instantly understand the implications of entire research projects. Because of this, I was able to see weaknesses in all the available projects. This caused me to become very concerned about what I was doing and I felt like I was wasting my time. I voiced my concerns to my advisor and he casually brushed them aside. He told me "Just have fun, it'll be fun". I kept trying to get motivated, but things continued to get worse. I started seeing flaws in the foundations of Genetics and other fields. It got to the point where I couldn't stop thinking about them. To make things worse, no one else seemed to care, which really bothered me. All these issues made it impossible for me to continue, so I decided to leave.

The day after I decided to leave, my life became a living hell. I couldn't sleep and my mind felt sapped. I was entirely at peace with my decision, so I knew something strange was happening to me. After a few days of this, two of the graduate students began reaching out to me. Eugene Lurie and Brandon Pekarek. I barely knew them, so it seemed unusual they would contact me. When I went to see them, they both kept pointing their finger at me saying "pew pew" like they were shooting a gun. They did this over and over and I kept wondering what their problem was. (Months after I left Houston, I was told that Eugene and Brandon were not human. They were tasked with making me into "the next school shooter" as they called it. I imagine this is why many of our school shootings take place.)

Anyway, things slowly improved after I stopped talking with Eugene and Brandon, but I was mentally exhausted. I tried to figure out what to do with my life, but I could hardly think. Eventually, I left Texas and started applying for jobs all over the country. A few months later, things took a strange turn.

OCT 2014 – AUG 2015 - CDA, ID

In Spring 2015, I finally secured an interview with a food company. I thought I was about to get something going with my life, but I was wrong. I couldn't sleep at all the night before my interview. I literally stayed awake the entire night, which had never happened to me before. I looked unrecognizable in the mirror the next morning and my mind felt sapped worse than it had in Houston. Needless to say, the interview didn't go well. I couldn't think and I had extreme difficulty with normal conversation. After the interview was over, I suddenly felt fine AND looked perfectly normal... I slept great that night then made my way to the airport the next morning.

This is where the story gets weird. On the plane ride back home, my seat was taken. I asked the flight attendant and she directed me to a new seat. Once I sat down, an older gentleman in front of me kept glancing back until he got my attention. As he kept looking back, my head began to hurt and tingle. The moment my head began to hurt, his lips curled up into this evil looking smile. The pain and tingling in my head continued for the rest of the flight and got more intense as time went on. Every time I felt it, the man would start taking notes in a notepad. About halfway through the flight, someone else in front of me held up a newspaper that said "Psychic Reading" for like 5 minutes straight. It was blatantly obvious they were doing something to me, but I didn't know what. Once we landed, the older gentleman kept showing me his TracFone as if to say "Get one of these".

I had applied to several government agencies before this happened, so I thought this might be their way of contacting me. Out of curiosity, I decided to go and buy a TracFone. I checked it every day to see if anyone messaged or called. About a month later, I got a text message from a man named John Padula. He invited me to come to church at The Altar. It seemed like a strange place to be recruiting for government jobs, but I went anyway. After I got there and went inside, something felt very wrong. I felt as if my life was in danger and I became so uncomfortable I had to leave.

A couple days later, I started receiving text messages from Tim Remington. At first they were innocuous bible messages, but then he started threatening me. He sent messages talking about 'their power' and other things. He did all of this through bible verses so it would not look suspicious. I ignored everything until he sent one final text message, which simply said 'angels'. I thought nothing of it until helicopters started flying around my house all day and all night. At this point, I knew I was in trouble. I knew I needed to contact them, so I made an appointment to meet John Padula for coffee. Little did I know, he had no intention of meeting me.

After making the appointment to meet John, something very bizarre happened. I received the most unnatural erection I've ever had. It felt like someone was manually pumping blood into my penis. I don't know how else to describe it. Immediately after that, a song began playing in my mind. The lyrics went: "Sister sister, he's just a plaything. We wanna make him stay up all night." I had never heard this song before and I had no idea what it meant. I tried to ignore it and kept searching for jobs. A few minutes later, the song quit playing.

Nothing else happened until I tried to go to sleep that night. As soon as I got into bed, the song started again. "Sister sister, he's just a plaything. We wanna make him stay up all night." As it turned out, they weren't kidding. I got literally zero minutes of sleep that night. Every time I started to drift off, I was woken up violently then the song would play.

When the sun came up, I gave up on trying to sleep and got out of bed. I was relieved at first because the song had quit playing. I thought the torture was over until a voice entered my mind. The voice said: "You're going to be uncomfortable, all you have to do is breathe". I sat there wondering what this meant until the voice spoke again. It told me I was going to: "...be sacrificed like Jesus and get beheaded." This threw me into a complete panic. My heart began racing and I started to have a mental breakdown.

A few minutes later, some man knocked on my door. I answered and he gave me a pamphlet talking about "The Sacrifice of Jesus". My mind started racing out of control and I became completely delirious. I thought for sure I was going to die. My thoughts shifted to my family, and all I could think about was seeing them again. They were in Albuquerque at the time, so I decided to buy a one-way ticket there.

When I reached the Spokane airport, my panic subsided. Everything was fine until I got on the plane to Albuquerque. I sat next to this huge man who kept telling me (telepathically) that he was going to crash the plane. Every time after he spoke he would sniff emphatically. I didn't know what to do, so I just sat there trying to stay as calm as possible. The 'man' became angry about this and started touching my leg. The second he touched me, I could feel him inside my mind. This caused me to panic until I was on the verge of causing a scene. Before I did anything, he told me to calm down and said: "You did a great job. You passed! Go enjoy your family. We have a job waiting for you when you get back.” I thanked him and felt slightly relieved, but I had no intention of contacting him at all. My only thought was to get as far away from him as possible.

After getting off the plane, I headed to the baggage claim. A huge group of them surrounded me there. I watched them cautiously, then they all began sniffing at me. (The sniff is something they do all the time. I think it has something to do with dominance.) When I finally got my bag, I left the airport as fast as I could. My parents were right outside waiting to pick me up. I was so happy to see them again. I gave them big hugs and told them how much I loved them. This was my last happy moment in Albuquerque, however. They followed us everywhere we went after that. Whenever I saw one, they would sniff at me to let me know it was them. They would also smile, laugh, and stick their tongues out.

As time went on, they started coaxing me to go outside alone. I was scared to death they would kill me, so I refused. Eventually, they threatened to harm my family, which caused me to give in to them. I told them I would do whatever they want if they left my family alone. They responded by saying “Go to church.” I knew they meant The Altar, so I agreed to go when I got back.

When I went to The Altar for the first time, the people acted very strange. It was unhuman. As I walked into the sermon room, everyone stared at me and began sniffing emphatically. Needless to say, I was scared as hell, but I took a seat. When the service began, a man came and sat down next to me. After he sat down, I began smelling something. It was a smell I had never smelt before. The only thing I can compare it to is a reptile and vinegar. After smelling it, I became very uncomfortable. I tried to remain calm and just sat there quietly until the service was over. When the service ended, they said: “You can leave now”. After that, I knew I wasn’t dealing with the government anymore. I realized that whoever I was dealing with was extraterrestrial, so I became very scared.

I received no further instructions from them after that, so I began applying for jobs again. Even though I had done exactly as I was told, they still followed me everywhere I went. As time went on, they started harassing me day and night. I began to hear voices more often and I began to hallucinate things that I knew weren't real. They also started playing with me sexually. Both the males and the females would play out their sexual fantasies in my mind. This came with random and uncontrollable erections as well as extreme anal stimulation. (See Brain & Behavior & Martian Tech)

The harassment continued for weeks and intensified as time went on. I did my absolute best to maintain my sanity and tried to avoid them. This worked for a while, but eventually I had a huge meltdown. One day, I was in the bakery at Safeway when I got surrounded by a bunch of old men. Some of them looked at me and sniffed, so I knew it was them. They started stimulating my penis and anus simultaneously, then they spoke aggressively. They said:

"Humans are nothing more than the result of a successful genetic experiment."

"You are a threat to the way these people think and you can no longer be free in society."

"Your life is over"

"You are nothing but a toy. Your purpose now is to suck (their penis)."

They continued to say other explicit things that were so obscene I won't repeat them here. Before they finished talking, I became enraged. It took every ounce of willpower I had not to kill them. I left the store and tried to calm down but it only got worse. The rest of the night they continually stimulated my penis and I couldn't stop ejaculating. It got to the point where I was in serious pain. They finally stopped after I broke down and became completely distraught. I knew I couldn't take any more, so I attempted suicide. I filled a charcoal grill with lit coals, put it in my car and rolled up the windows. I reclined my seat, laid there calmly, then fell asleep. I should have died but they woke me up in an extreme panic, which caused me to get out of the car.

As I slowly regained consciousness, I felt very upset to still be alive. I had no clue where to go at that point, so I decided to check myself into the VA. They shipped me straight to the mental ward and I was admitted. Nothing improved while I was there. The medication they gave me did absolutely nothing. I just sat there surrounded by a bunch of psychotic people and became exasperated. I knew their goal was to ruin my life by making me into a crazy person. I became determined not to let that happen and I started fighting back.

After leaving the VA, everything I tried to do with my life was sabotaged. They didn't want me dead, but they also weren't going to let me live. In desperation, I went back to The Altar to ask them what they wanted from me. I didn't know what else to do...

(Before I tell you their reply, I need to make an important caveat here. I had endured so much abuse by this time that I was numb to them. The details of what they've done to me aren't essential to the story, so I won't include them here. If you want to know more about what I've been through, or more about them, write me. Just realize I've been tortured more than a POW.)

Their response was: "We want you as our sex slave." Thinking they were serious, I sat there waiting for them to do something. All they did was say: "Keep coming to church", so I did. After a few more services, I found myself talking to Tim Remington face to face. He was telling me that I should consider becoming a minister. We were in mid conversation when he suddenly revealed himself to me. I have no clue how he did it, but it looked as if his human face became his real face. It happened for only 1-2 seconds, but I was able to draw a sketch of what I saw. His eyes really stood out so they captured my attention. They were huge and bulging, the eyelids were darker green, and the irises were yellow/brown with slit pupils. After witnessing this, nothing else happened. I continued attending The Altar for a few more services waiting for them to do something. They did nothing except for tell me to “submit” and “surrender”. I had no clue what they meant, so I left the church and never went back.

AUG 2015 – PRESENT TIME - CDA, ID

After leaving The Altar, they gave me some breathing room. They held back on their harassment and I began to recover. I decided to make one final attempt at a normal life by pursuing a career as a pharmacist. I started taking classes at NIC to finish up the pre-req's I needed. I also started volunteering at a local pharmacy. Unfortunately, they followed me to school. There were several of them in every class I took. They made it impossible for me to study, and they continually harassed me especially while I took tests. Even with all of this going on, I still somehow managed to get an A- in A&P during the fall semester.

Sadly, my success was short lived. The pressure this semester (Spring 2016) is FAR too intense. Every time I go to class, they start manipulating my brain until I go into a blind rage. Sometimes they suppress my brain until I begin to blackout. They also manipulate my heart rate and flood my body with adrenaline over and over again making me extremely uncomfortable. The females stimulate my penis when they are close, and the males stimulate my anus. It's incredibly exhausting.

I struggled to pass my tests so they couldn't blame this on me failing out of school. I want to continue, but I simply cannot. Every moment I spend in the classroom is absolute torture. The classes themselves are extremely difficult without all this added pressure. The worst part is I received an interview for ISU's pharmacy program (see personal documents). Since I cannot continue with the classes, there is no reason to go to the interview. My chance at a normal life has been ruined. They've also been depriving me of sleep, so I don't have the strength to continue.

I was too smart for my own good, so they decided to remove me from society. They were worried I might change the way other people think, which could lead to problems. Problems in the form of scientific revolutions. If we get much smarter as a species, we are going to become a threat to their existence.

If you talk to me in person, you will see that I'm not crazy at all. The Martians are just so good at hiding in plain sight that no one would know they exist unless they revealed themselves. They are able to fool us so well that what I'm saying sounds impossible. However, they are 100% real. Realize their technology is millions of years more advanced than ours. Think about that for a second. Think about the advancement we have made in the last 100 years. Once you've done that, try to imagine what millions of years of technology would look like.

The President is well aware of them, which is why I wrote him a personal letter. I hope he does something about it. I have done nothing wrong to deserve what's happened to me. I tried literally everything to find a job, and they sabotaged me at every corner. Initially, I thought the right thing to do was kill myself. After attempting suicide twice, it became clear they weren't going to let me die easy.

My last resort was to take actions to bring this to the public's attention. I hope something good comes of it. Just realize that I'm a good person, and I'm completely innocent. Also realize that the 'people' I killed are not what you think. (Read Martian Technology to understand)

To make it very clear, Tim & John were NOT wild human beings.

Wild Humans = normal people like you and I.

Tim and John = minds were controlled from birth by Martians.

It's hard to imagine I know. Nonetheless, it's all true. Why would I give up a career as a pharmacist to do this?

I left out many details from my story. I wanted to write only the most critical events in order to make it coherent. If you want to know more, like how I discovered there are multiple species of them, feel free to write me.

Q&A

Why would aliens hide in a church?

Same reason terrorists hide in Mosques. If you're doing very bad things and you want to avoid getting caught, you will put up a front to make yourself look like a good person.

How do you know about their technology?

I have seen them use it, and they have talked to me about it. This was how I learned about their breeding stock of remote control humans. Physically, their humans are no different than us, they just lack a mind of their own.

Why would they tell you so much?

They value me because I'm smart. They were also very confident they could take control of my mind. Turns out they couldn't. Anyway, in the interim, some of us developed a personal relationship. They are very arrogant, so they told me much more than they should have. This allowed me to understand some of the things they can do.

What else have you seen?

I have seen them make things appear out of nowhere. One time I was sitting on a couch and a dollar bill appeared on my lap. Another time while driving, they made a paper bag appear in my passenger seat. They used random unsuspecting items so no one would think anything of it. I was alone both times this happened.

I'm pretty sure they can pop in and out of this dimension based on other things I've seen. I'm also pretty sure they can overlap our reality with an alternate dimension. I say this because I have gone into stores (where I know the employees) and suddenly there are all new employees who I've never seen before.

Some of the other things I've seen are so strange I literally cannot describe them. This all makes sense though. Their technology is millions of years ahead of ours, so it should be incomprehensible to us.

Why did they target you?

They started following me after I encountered the being through meditation. Since my mind was so expanded from the experience, they deemed me a threat to the rest of society. They thought I would change the way people think, so they decided to remove me from society.

I began to have profound thoughts about Genetics while I was at graduate school, which is another factor. If certain ways of thinking are allowed to exist, revolutions will take place. They could not afford for us to have a revolution in Genetics. If we did, we could eliminate diseases, cancers, and many other things that plague us. They need us to remain ignorant and continue struggling, otherwise we will become a threat to them.

(This will not make sense unless you are the President or one of his close friends. If this doesn't pertain to you, please ignore it)

Mr. President,

- I want to thank you for your sacrifice to this country.
- It's very upsetting to hear you talk about the things they do to you. Why do you let them?
- I suppose you have no other choice.
- I've been struggling with them myself for over a year now.
- I had nothing to lose, so I chose this instead. I could never tolerate that much abuse.
- I hope you don't take any of their threats too seriously. Everything is a game to them.
- Realize they consider the entire human race a plaything, including you.
- They brag to me about what they do to you.....
- I'm sure you already know, but he doesn't love you. Their brains don't even work that way.
- I don't know you personally, but they've shown me a lot about you. You're an amazing person.
- I hope you stop letting them humiliate you. Why be afraid to retaliate? Kennedy wasn't.
- It's time someone took a stand to end this nonsense. Can you think of a better legacy than that?
- What's worse: Having everyone know the reality of the situation, or watching some of our best and brightest become slaves?

I wish you the very best with the remainder of your presidency.

If you're still in there, stay strong!

Too many to list.

This is by no means an all-inclusive list. Martians are ubiquitous. They exist at every level of society in every nation. Some have blue collar jobs, while others occupy positions of power. They control our government, our military, and Corporate America as well. They keep track of every 'wild' human on the planet and manage us like animals in a zoo. Our 'freedom' is a carefully crafted illusion.

Early Civilization & The Bible

Genetic evidence has shown that modern humans originated in Africa ~200,000 years ago. Before civilization, we lived in tribes of hunter-gatherer's. The hunter-gatherer lifestyle dominated for tens of thousands of years. As our ancestors began to master their environment, they migrated out of Africa. They spread out into Europe and Asia, then began settling near bodies of water. Eventually, we discovered agriculture, which led to the formation of the first civilizations.

Around 3800 BC, there was an ancient Mesopotamian city called Ur. Ur was one of the most important city-states of the time period. It was located near the mouth of the Euphrates on the Persian Gulf. It was the southern-most Mesopotamian city, which left it exposed. This location on the outskirts of the ancient world made Ur an ideal place for Martians to visit. At least two species of Martians visited Ur, which was documented by its inhabitants. (I was contacted by both of these species as well) The two species are:

- 1) Amphibian-humanoids
- 2) Reptilian-humanoids

The humans living in Ur created figurines to document what they had seen. If you search for Mesopotamia, or Ur, you will find the sculptures these people made. Some of them depict amphibian-humanoids, others depict reptilian-humanoids. They also made many figurines of people with gigantic eyes. I'm not sure what the people with gigantic eyes are.

- I didn't have time to finish this document.
- The bible was inspired by Martians, not God. There is no god.
- They created religion to keep mankind divided.

- God was a concept created by the Martians to control the minds of primitive man.
- Read The God Delusion by Richard Dawkins if you need convincing.
- Also check: www.godisimaginary.com
- Jesus was a megalomaniacal fraud, a liar, and a jerk. He was no savior, and he certainly wasn't unique. During Jesus' time, many other people emerged claiming to be the savior of all mankind. The Martians saw this as a problem for their Jewish traditions, so they decided to use Jesus to their advantage. If they sacrificed Jesus as 'the messiah', then people would stop proclaiming themselves to be a savior. Voila, problem solved.
- The only good thing religion ever brought us was traditions. Traditions bring us together as families, as friends, and as a species.
- One more thing: God existing as a 'trinity' comes from the Martians. Write me if you want to know more.

Our Plight

I didn't have time to finish this.

"We are going to have peace even if we have to fight for it."

-Dwight D Eisenhower

"Peace is a daily, a weekly, a monthly process, gradually changing opinions, slowly eroding old barriers, quietly building new structures."

-John F Kennedy

Every president finds out that Martians are real. President Eisenhower warned us about them. President Kennedy stood up against them.

They're the reason we have so many languages and so many nations. They constantly pit nations against each other, which makes a lot of sense. If we are constantly at war with each other, we'll never make progress as a species. This is how they maintain complete and absolute control.

Have you ever wondered why a war zone is also known as "A Theatre"? It's because war is entertainment! That's why.

Entertainment for whom? The Martians! They enjoy watching conflict, they enjoy watching us suffer, and they enjoy watching death. It's one of their most basic needs. When you know about their brain, this makes perfect sense.

They try to keep us in a constant state of fear by filling the news with horror stories. This is another one of their most basic control mechanisms.

They constantly stir up controversy to keep us divided: Black lives matter, violence against police, Islam vs. Christianity, immigrants taking our jobs, Zika, etc. (Yes, they can create viruses)

Some of the top officials in our government/military are their pawns. The Martian's rape them (sexually) and force them to do whatever else they want. Ask President Obama if you don't believe me.

To Martians, humans are nothing more than a plaything.

You might be wondering: Why do they do this to us? It's because we rejected them. Many times. In ancient Mesopotamia, they tried to live among us. It never worked out no matter how many times they tried. This caused them to develop extreme animosity towards us. Consequently, they have a vendetta against every wild human.

The actual Martians themselves have zero self-esteem. This is why they live vicariously as humans.

They can also take control of 'wild' human minds. I have seen them do this to multiple people, and they've done it to me as well. The only time they're able to take control of my mind is when they wake me up in the middle of the night. They make me say extremely strange things and flail my body parts around like a puppet.

They tried to take complete control of my mind on multiple occasions while I was at school. They were never able to. This angered them severely, which is why they caused me to drop out of school. I have no options left. They have no intention of letting me live a life.

Martian Brain & Behavior

I've observed their behavior for almost a year now. Consequently, I've been able to make several deductions about them. The first deduction is based on their primary characteristics, which include:

1. They are hypersexual
2. They are hyperaggressive
3. They are fearful and paranoid

In the human brain, the amygdala is responsible for all of these characteristics. Therefore, Martian's must have an analogous structure, and it must be greatly enlarged. The morphology of their brain is also markedly different than ours. I know this because I've seen what the amphibian-humanoids look like.

The males are extremely aggressive. In their society there is only one thing, and that is power. Whoever is the smartest, biggest, and strongest wins. One time, I was talking to a young male who kept trying to intimidate/scare me. He saw that I was still confident in myself and immediately became discouraged. He stopped what he was doing and said "you think you're better than me", then hung his head and walked away. I told him that wasn't true but he wouldn't listen. After this, every time I encountered one of the males in public they would attack me (mentally) until they destroyed my self-esteem. They did this because they are scared to death of my intelligence. The only way they have the confidence to talk with me is if I'm scared for my life or completely despondent.

To the males, everything is black or white. There is no middle ground. They are power hungry megalomaniacs obsessed with control. If they are not 100% in control of every situation, they panic. If something happens they aren't anticipating, they get very upset. They hate surprises. I know this because I was smart enough to trick them a few times.

To recap, the males are:

- 1) Megalomaniacal
- 2) Obsessed with sex
- 3) Extremely aggressive
- 4) Fearful and paranoid
- 5) Power hungry
- 6) Obsessed with control

Sound familiar? Who else do you know that has these characteristics? If you answered: God from the bible, you are correct. Martians are responsible for the God myth. Martians may have created humans, as they claimed, but they are certainly not Gods themselves. They are just another intelligent species that evolved on a neighboring planet. There is no God. There is no heaven. There is no hell. Earth is as close to heaven as we'll ever get, and we are letting the Martians ruin it. They are going to destroy Earth just like they destroyed Mars if we let them. Our survival rests in their hands for the time being.

Origins – Part 1

In order to talk about life on Mars, first we need to discuss where the solar system came from. Before our sun or any of the planets existed, our solar system was part of a giant molecular cloud. The birth of our solar system began when a gravitational disturbance occurred inside this cloud. As gravity took over, the mass of the molecular cloud began collapsing on itself, which led to the formation of our sun. As the sun formed, a huge mass of dust began collapsing around it, which flattened out into a protoplanetary disk. The material of the protoplanetary disk then began to accrete and coalesce. This process gradually led to the formation of the planets, moons, asteroids, and comets in our solar system.

During this time, the solar system was an incredibly hot place. The surface of the rocky planets (earth & mars) was molten. The early solar system was also swarming with comets and asteroids, which constantly bombarded the planets and their moons. The timescales of these events were massive, occurring over billions of years. In order to understand Origins - Part 2, you have to understand the fundamentals of cosmology.

Unless you have a firm grasp on cosmology, I highly recommend using the links above to broaden your understanding before continuing.

Origins – Part 2

Once you feel comfortable with the basics of cosmology, let's continue from where we left off. You'll recall that Earth and Mars were molten and being bombarded by asteroids. Earth and Mars developed from the same material, and they are positioned next to each other, so it shouldn't surprise you that their composition is similar. Both have iron cores and both have volcanoes. Because of this, it follows that mars developed an early atmosphere very similar to earths.

An atmosphere is one of the key requirements for biological life to exist. The other key ingredient is liquid water. As Mars began to cool down, it started to develop an atmosphere. Since Mars is further from the sun, its surface cooled much faster than Earths. Eventually, Mars cooled down enough that liquid water could accumulate on its surface. Once this happened, biological life began evolving on Mars. (This likely occurred before the Earth even had liquid water).

Before we talk about life evolving on Mars, it's important to understand the concept of convergent evolution. One of the best examples of convergent evolution comes from mammals. Mammals in Australia evolved into marsupials whereas mammals in North America evolved into placentals. This is an example of how two isolated populations can evolve similar traits even though they exist in completely different environments. With this in mind, let's talk about evolution on Mars.

Reptiles and amphibians evolved here on Earth, so convergent evolution tells us they should have first evolved on Mars. For whatever reason, the reptiles and amphibians of Mars developed intelligence while Earth's did not. By the time Dinosaurs evolved on Earth, the Martians were already a technologically advanced civilization. They were so advanced they survived their own planets demise and colonized the Earth. They also converted the moon into a home, and I'm fairly certain they caused the mass extinction of the dinosaurs. How else do you colonize a planet that is covered with giant monsters who want to eat you? Anyway, there is loads of evidence to back this up. Look into it. Look into the orbit of the moon, and the fact that it does not rotate at all. Look into the fact that the moon is hollow. Look into the fact that there are underground bases in mountains and under the oceans. They don't belong to us; they are inhabited by Martians. The truth is out there; it's just submerged in a sea of disinformation!

WHEN a child is born its sense-organs are brought in contact with the outer world.

The waves of sound, heat and light beat upon its feeble body, its sensitive nerve-fibres quiver, the muscles contract and relax in obedience: a gasp, a breath, and in this act a marvellous little engine, of inconceivable delicacy and complexity of construction, unlike any on earth, is hitched to the wheelwork of the Universe.

The little engine labors and grows, performs more and more involved operations, becomes sensitive to ever subtler influences and now there manifests itself in the fully developed being—Man—a desire mysterious, inscrutable and irresistible: to imitate nature, to create, to work himself the wonders he perceives.

Inspired to this task he searches, discovers and invents, designs and constructs, and enriches with monuments of beauty, grandeur and awe, the star of his birth.

He descends into the bowels of the globe to bring forth its hidden treasures and to unlock its immense imprisoned energies for his use.

He invades the dark depths of the ocean and the azure regions of the sky.

He peers into the innermost nooks to his service the fierce, devastating spark of Prometheus, the titanic forces of the waterfall, the wind and the tide.

He tames the thundering bolt of Jove and annihilates time and space. He makes the great Sun itself his obedient toiling slave.

Such is his power and might that the heavens reverberate and the whole earth trembles by the mere sound of his voice.

What has the future in store for this strange being, born of a breath, of perishable tissue, yet immortal, with his powers fearful and divine? What magic will be wrought by him in the end? What is to be his greatest deed, his crowning achievement?

Long ago he recognized that all perceptible matter comes from a primary substance, of a tenuity beyond conception and filling all space—the Akasa or luminiferous ether—which is acted upon by the life-giving Prana or creative force, calling into existence, in never ending cycles, all things and phenomena.

The primary substance, thrown into infinitesimal whirls of prodigious velocity, becomes gross matter; the force subsiding, the motion ceases and matter disappears, reverting to the primary substance.

in nature? Can he harness her inexhaustible energies to perform all their functions at his bidding, more still—can he so refine his means of control as to put them in operation simply by the force of his will?

If he could do this he would have powers almost unlimited and supernatural. At his command, with but a slight effort on his part, old worlds would disappear and new ones of his planning would spring into being.

He could fix, solidify and preserve the ethereal shapes of his imagining, the fleeting visions of his dreams. He could express all the creations of his mind, on any scale, in forms concrete and imperishable.

He could alter the size of this planet, control its seasons, guide it along any path he might choose through the depths of the Universe.

He could make planets collide and produce his suns and stars, his heat and light. He could originate and develop life in all its infinite forms.

To create and to annihilate material substance, cause it to aggregate in forms according to his desire, would be the supreme manifestation of the power of Man's mind, his most complete triumph over the physical

Martian Technology

"If you wish to understand the universe, think in terms of energy, frequency, and vibration."

-Nikola Tesla

Nikola Tesla was one of the most brilliant men of all time. He laid the foundations for modern society by inventing alternating current. If it weren't for his inventions, we would not have any of the luxuries we now take for granted. Tesla was lightyears ahead of his time in terms of his thinking. Not only did he create AC power, he also invented radio, discovered electrogravitics, and stumbled upon the waves Martians use to communicate. Sadly, many of his discoveries are forbidden knowledge so they have been hidden. The species who run this planet cannot allow us to have the same technology they do. If we did, we would become a threat to their existence. This is why Tesla's work was seized by 'FBI agents' immediately after his death. No one knows what happened to it. Fortunately, Tesla spoke enough about what he discovered that we can still gain a glimpse of what he knew... As Tesla said, the key to everything is energy, frequency, and vibration.

If you know anything about physics or chemistry, then you know that everything is composed of atoms. Atoms are composed of smaller particles called protons, neutrons, and electrons. The protons, neutrons, and electrons themselves are composed of even smaller particles, and so on. The smaller you get, the stranger things become. Ultimately, matter and everything in the universe can be thought of in terms of energy, frequency, and vibration. The computer you're reading this on, the chair you're sitting in, even you. Everything can be viewed in terms of waves & energy. Keep this fact in mind as you read the rest of this article.

The waves Martians use to communicate are something Tesla called 'non-hertzian waves'. These waves are also known as 'longitudinal waves' or 'transverse waves'. According to Tesla, non-hertzian waves are much more efficient and reliable than hertzian waves (aka electromagnetic waves). They are capable of traveling vast distances with essentially no signal attenuation. Every other type of wave, radio for example, loses signal strength the further they travel from the source. You already know this from experience if you've ever traveled long distance in a car. Once you reach a certain distance, you can no longer listen to your local stations. With this distinction out of the way, let's continue by discussing how Tesla discovered Martian communication signals.

In 1899, Tesla moved to the Waldorf Astoria hotel in Colorado Springs. He built a receiver and transmitter that could send and receive 'non-hertzian waves'. He installed this equipment on the roof of the hotel and began receiving signals of an unknown origin. He claimed to be talking with Martians, but no one took him seriously. It couldn't make more sense though. If non-hertzian waves are superior, then it's obvious the Martians would be using them. As Tesla continued with his research, he began to understand the sheer power of wave technology. The following quote demonstrates this:

"He could alter the size of this planet, control its seasons, guide it along any path he might choose through the depths of the Universe. He could make planets collide and produce his suns and stars, his heat and light. He could originate and develop life in all its infinite forms."

-Nikola Tesla from Man's Greatest Achievement

It's kind of scary to think about controlling planetary bodies with wave technology. Imagine the devastation that could be caused if it were used for destructive purposes. Say for example, colonizing a planet. Imagine back to the days of the dinosaurs. The Martians wanted to colonize our planet but the dinosaurs were in the way. Martians have the technology to harness planetary bodies, so imagine them sending a massive asteroid on a collision course with Earth... Voila. Dinosaurs are dead, colonization can commence.

BIOLOGICAL SPECIES AND ELECTRICITY

Everything in our bodies runs on electrical impulses. Our brains operate over a wide range of electrical frequencies shown here. Everything we experience in life is simply the result of electrical activity. To be more precise, everything we experience is the sequence of a series of action potentials occurring in the central nervous system. Think about that for a second. Every thought, every perception, and every action are all governed by electrical impulses. I won't try to expand on this here, but it's incredibly important to understand the nervous system and how it works. If you care to learn about the nervous system from a video, I highly recommend checking out crash course on YouTube:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=q8NtmDrb_qo

If our perception occurs due to electrical impulses, it follows that it can be manipulated with the right technology. This is why Martian's are able to directly alter our perception. They have the technology. They can trick our brain into: visual and auditory hallucinations, smelling, tasting, heart rate fluctuations, erections, and every other CNS event. This provides a full explanation of how they manipulated my penis as described in My Story. Read about the science behind an erection here if you're not convinced yet.

So as you can see, Tesla was right. Energy, frequency, and vibration allow us to control the world around us. The Martian's have known this for eons, and they use it against us. As I said before, they own a massive stock of humans, which they breed and control from birth. Since they have the technology to control a central nervous system, they can operate their 'humans' like remote control toys.

Unfortunately for us 'wild' humans, they can control us too.

I assume they said this because their head looks like a puppet.

again, they only revealed bits and pieces to me, and very briefly. Thankfully I have a photographic memory so I was able to remember what I saw, although I only remember the general appearance because each time I saw them it was very brief. They would smile at me in stores and reveal their mouth/eyes/nose all separately, never together at the same time.

Dear Kyle,

Congratulations, you have been selected for a personal interview to be considered for acceptance into the Doctor of Pharmacy program at Idaho State University. This final phase of our selection process is mandatory in order to be considered further for admission. The interview dates are:

Pocatello, Idaho – February 26, March 4, 10 and 11
Meridian, Idaho – February 26, March 4, 10 and 11

You may choose to interview in either Pocatello or Meridian, Idaho, depending on availability. Please note, the date or location selected for your interview does not influence your application status or your final site location placement.

Call (208) 282-3475 or email Emily Edwards at Emily@pharmacy.isu.edu to schedule your interview day in Pocatello or Meridian, Idaho. You are responsible for all expenses incurred as a result of the interview process (travel, meals, lodging, etc.).

Plan to be at your interview location at 8:30AM and depart early afternoon, approximately 3:00PM. The entering class is not selected until after the final interview day. Once the entering class is identified, we will then seek to place students at their preferred site.

During the interviews, you may be asked to discuss your perceptions of a career in pharmacy, motivation, future career goals, and academic personal strengths and weaknesses. There will also be ethical dilemmas and critical thinking scenarios presented in a brief interview format. The interviews are important – dress appropriately, in a professional manner, and come prepared.

If you are accepted into the Doctor of Pharmacy program, you will be required to submit a nonrefundable seat-hold fee. The fee will be credited toward your fall 2016 program fees and tuition. The fee is $500 for Idaho residents and $1,500 for non-Idaho residents. Site preferences will be assigned based on the order that seat-hold fees are received.
