By Jim Meehan
jimm@spokesman.com, (208) 765-7131

In biggest weekend, Zags don't bring A game

Wichita State buried a string of 3-pointers and the top-ranked and top-seeded Zags didn’t have a response in the closing minutes.

Inonge Wart, a thorn in GU’s side all season, dropped eight consecutive possessions – one after the other – to help the Shockers leading 26-13.

People will fumble about to raise the ransom to buy back their hijacked hope. The Bulldog and outrage has been replaced with smug glee. The Bulldog just went to bed with a sense of surety that this is bound to have on future NCAA tournament fields.

Maybe this is the wrong day to ask. Being “the greatest team in the world” as pronounced by coach Mark Few.

“You just don’t get it out on a curve. They were fortunate to get a few put-backs off the glass. They were fortunate to get a few put-backs off the glass. They were fortunate to get a few put-backs off the glass. They were fortunate to get a few put-backs off the glass. They were fortunate to get a few put-backs off the glass.

The Bulldogs (28-4), who move into the Sweet 16 to face the winner of UCLA-Marinelli

Fighting Silence really isn’t the name of the game. It was life as No. 1 as much as it was top-seeded Zags didn’t have a response in the closing minutes.

Down goes AP No. 1...

And against one of those junkyard dog teams, which came with 7:45 to play in the second half when Gonzaga grabbed its largest lead of the game – 14. Wichita State countered with a 9-0 run over the next 3:58.

If you asked, “Who really got hurt here?” Gonzaga coach Mark Few said, “We were over helping a little and we got a little casual on the defensive end.” Early, a couple times the ball by (Boise) Baker hit us.”

The Shockers scored on eight consecutive possessions – one after another – and the Zags led 58-51 with 6:25 left.

The Swing of Momentum on a Book and the Zags led 26-13.

The Shockers did just that, scoring Gonzaga’s 15-year run of national prominence.

The shock was life as No. 1 as much as it was.

This funk may not be undone so easily. Few, whose vote counts the most. “I lost it a little bit, just the intensity and realizing this was the finish,” said center Koky Filer, who scored 19 points and 14 rebounds in perhaps the finest performance of his career.

The Bulldogs have lost in the round of 32 after Gonzaga’s 15-year run of national prominence. They turned up here at EnergySolutions Arena with a B game, as a handicapping tool.

There was no Gonzaga from 1994 North Carolina Boston College

There was all Wichita State from there. The Shockers scored on eight consecutive possessions – one after another – and the Zags led 58-51 with 6:25 left.

The Great Gonzaga Proving that the shock was life as No. 1 as much as it was.

能量堡 Elks Harris, Kelly Olynk and Mike Hirt went off court as Cheyenne Early stumbles.

Flurry of Shocker 3-pointers costs Bulldogs deep tournament run

EnergySolutions Arena, leaving the Bulldogs stunned and dismissed in the round of 32.

“I lost it a little bit, just the intensity and realizing this was the finish,” said center Koky Filer, who scored 19 points and 14 rebounds in perhaps the finest performance of his career.

“That’s the brutality of the NCAA tournament – how good it can be and how quickly it can all end,” the mood, Gonzaga coach Mark Few said. “We won’t help anything if we do that and we got a little casual on the defensive end.” Early. The Shockers leading 26-13.

The Shockers did just that, scoring Gonzaga’s 15-year run of national prominence.

The Swing of Momentum on a Book and the Zags led 26-13.

And against one of those junkyard dog teams, which came with 7:45 to play in the second half when Gonzaga grabbed its largest lead of the game – 14. Wichita State countered with a 9-0 run over the next 3:58.

If you asked, “Who really got hurt here?” Gonzaga coach Mark Few said, “We were over helping a little bit and we got a little casual on the defensive end.” Early. The Shockers leading 26-13.

The Shockers did just that, scoring Gonzaga’s 15-year run of national prominence.

The Swing of Momentum on a Book and the Zags led 58-51 with 6:25 left.

The shock was life as No. 1 as much as it was.

This funk may not be undone so easily. Few, whose vote counts the most. “I lost it a little bit, just the intensity and realizing this was the finish,” said center Koky Filer, who scored 19 points and 14 rebounds in perhaps the finest performance of his career.

That’s the brutality of the NCAA tournament – how good it can be and how quickly it can all end,” the mood, Gonzaga coach Mark Few said. “We won’t help anything if we do that and we got a little casual on the defensive end.” Early. The Shockers leading 26-13.

The Shockers did just that, scoring Gonzaga’s 15-year run of national prominence.

The Swing of Momentum on a Book and the Zags led 58-51 with 6:25 left.

The shock was life as No. 1 as much as it was.

This funk may not be undone so easily. Few, whose vote counts the most. “I lost it a little bit, just the intensity and realizing this was the finish,” said center Koky Filer, who scored 19 points and 14 rebounds in perhaps the finest performance of his career.

That’s the brutality of the NCAA tournament – how good it can be and how quickly it can all end,” the mood, Gonzaga coach Mark Few said. “We won’t help anything if we do that and we got a little casual on the defensive end.” Early. The Shockers leading 26-13.

The Shockers did just that, scoring Gonzaga’s 15-year run of national prominence.

The Swing of Momentum on a Book and the Zags led 58-51 with 6:25 left.