

Dear Committeemen,

Congressman Raul Labrador will be holding a Town Hall this Friday at 6:30 at the Lake City High School, 6101 N. Ramsey Coeur d'Alene.

We have reports that Citizens for an Indivisible Idaho is trying to organize political radicals to show up in force at the event. Apparently they want a sitting Republican Congressmen to believe he is unwelcome in own distinct he represents and won by 68.2% in 2016.

It would be great if you, your family, your friends and even fellow Republicans from your precinct could attend the event and show Raul how North Idaho REALLY feels. Of course you could just stay home and let the progressives set the public agenda.

This group's objective appears to be to prevent Republican politicians from having any civil discourse with their constituents as they try to reach out to better represent them. We must not allow these radical bullies to represent us.

I know where I'll be this Friday. Hope to see you there too.

Best regards,
Brent Regan
Chairman KCRCC

PS
The following research is from our secretary, Alex Baron.
Thank you Alex!
Brent

According to some, including the Press, it is silly to expect bullying behavior or even violence from the various indivisible groups. All of these Democratic associated groups are not violent, but some are. Here are some examples of the left-wing protesters from the Democrat-linked Indivisible groups.

Indivisible recently stormed the offices of Rep. Dana Rohrabacher, hurt a two year old child and put a 71-year-old staff member, Kathleen Saunton in the hospital. Source OC Register 16FEB2017.

<http://kootenaigop.us2.list-manage.com/track/click?u=5ff3167654100616c27a25d67&id=aebb4fb47b&e=20a8193f69>

Utah congressman Chris Stewart several weeks ago held his annual town hall meeting. A democrat-sponsored national resistance group called "Indivisible" sent perhaps a thousand people to trash the meeting. Instead of meeting with his constituents, he spent an hour trying to fend off an angry mob that was screaming, shouting, calling him racist and every other name in the book, would not allow constituents to ask questions, and would not allow him to answer. It was like something out of NAZI Germany.

<http://kootenaigop.us2.list-manage1.com/track/click?u=5ff3167654100616c27a25d67&id=03950d6e0b&e=20a8193f69>

Democrats trashed another Utah town hall meeting with Tea Party congressman Jason Chaffetz a few months ago, and they admitted it was part of a democrat plan to silence republicans.

And we all remember when Citizens for an Indivisible Idaho and who we think is their leader Tuevo Orjala took over Senator James Risch's Coeur d'Alene office on Jan. 31.

<http://kootenaigop.us2.list-manage.com/track/click?u=5ff3167654100616c27a25d67&id=aa5e8c9f0c&e=20a8193f69>

Some of those personalities associated with Indivisible are openly associated with groups financed by Soros.

<http://kootenaigop.us2.list-manage1.com/track/click?u=5ff3167654100616c27a25d67&id=86794390f6&e=20a8193f69>