

Newsroom Mystery: Digital Case File Worksheet

Detective Information

Detective Name(s): _____

Date of Investigation: _____

Section(s) of the e-Edition Explored: _____

Step 1: What Did You Find?

List two or three stories you discovered while exploring the e-Edition.

Story Title	Section	Who was featured?

Step 2: Who's Missing from the Paper?

Look at the stories you found. Who or what isn't represented? (Examples: kids, animals, teachers, neighbors, artists, your school, etc.)

Missing Voice or Topic:

Why do you think this story should be told?

Step 3: Write the Missing Story

Headline:

Where does it take place?

What happens?

How does it make readers feel or help the community?

Step 4: Create Your Visual

Draw or design a picture that could go with your story. You can use paper, a drawing app, or print this page and illustrate below.

Step 5: The Press Conference

Prepare to share your story with your class!

- What inspired your article?
- Why is your story important?
- What headline did you choose?